Re: In re Janus Mutual Funds Investment Litigation, Case No. 04-md-15863

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Santos:

I am writing in reference to your letter to Judge Motz dated April 5, 2012, and to follow up on our subsequent conversation with Mr. Santos.

In your letter, you stated that you contacted my firm but the website did not work and the phone only accepts messages. During our conversation, we confirmed that our website does work and that we are available by phone during regular business hours. Indeed, your first contact with our firm was not until April 5, 2012, the same day that you sent your letter to the Court, and just before Good Friday.

In any event, when we returned your call, Mr. Santos stated that he could not recall submitting a claim form to the Settlement Administrator nor did he retain a copy for his records. We contacted the Administrator on your behalf and determined that you did not file a claim. We understand the Administrator sent you a letter confirming the same. Unfortunately, because you did not submit a claim form, your claim is ineligible for recovery.

Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

MARK C. MOLUMPHY
